The Wisdom of the Marketors – what a lot of cards!

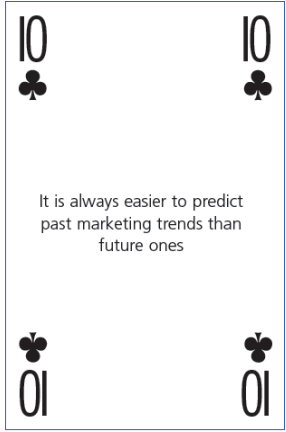

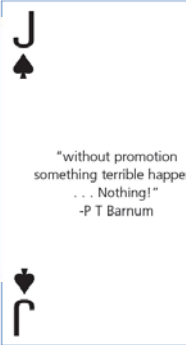

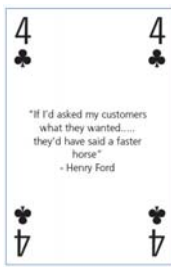

Fun and useful, whether you'll use both the packs for Bridge or just a pack at a time for anything from Snap to Poker, the Marketors playing cards are a must have, witty addition to your games drawer. A great dinner party talking point too.

Organised with the help of The Worshipful Company of Makers of Playing Cards (founded as the "Mistry Makers of Playing Cards of the City of London" by a Charter granted by King Charles 1 in 1628) and with support from Liveryman John Wilford's company Rave Communications, we have assembled a 'priceless' collection of witty marketing related idioms and quotations, one of each appears on each card. See if you can guess who contributed what and who the Joker in the pack is!

The special price ensures that any surplus is available for our Charitable and Educational Trust. In fact, advance interest includes one member's company buying packs to use as token corporate gifts, so stock up now. A witty small present that helps us fulfil our aims as a Livery company too – a great combination.

Price just £9.99 for a pack of two decks.
