- r. To employ such staff who shall not be members of the Court of the Company as are necessary for the proper pursuit of the Object and to make all reasonable and necessary provision for the payment of pensions and any other benefits to staff.
- s. To raise funds and to invite or receive contributions from any person or persons whatsoever by way of subscription, donation, and otherwise than through permanent trading.
- t. Subject to any consents as may be required by law, to invest the monies of the Company not immediately required in or upon such investments or other property or other assets as may be thought fit.
- u. To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire real or personal property and rights or privileges therein, and to construct, maintain and alter buildings or erections.
- v. Subject to such consents as may be required by law to sell, let, mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the assets of the Company.
- w. Subject to such consents as may be required by law to borrow or raise money on such terms and on such security as may be thought fit.
- x. To create such By-laws subject to the approval of the Privy Council as the Court may consider necessary for the good administration of the Company. The first such By-Laws are attached to this Charter as the Schedule.
- y. To do all such other lawful and charitable things as are incidental to the attainment or furtherance of the said objects or any of them.

Provided that:

(a) the Company's objects shall not extend to the representation of the interests of members with regard to their conditions of employment, and

(b) nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Company:

(i) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer or servant of the Company (not being a member of its Court) for any agreed services rendered to the Company;

(ii) to any member of its Court of reasonable out-of pocket expenses;

(iii) to a company of which a member of the Company may be a member holding not more than one hundredth or such other part of the capital of such company as the Court may agree.

MATTERS RELATED TO PROPERTY

4 (i) The Company hereby incorporated or any persons or person on its behalf may acquire for the purposes of the Company any lands tenements or hereditaments or any interest in any lands tenements or hereditaments whatsoever and to hold the same in perpetuity or otherwise and from time to time (subject to all such consents as are by law required) to grant demise alienate or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof.

(ii) And any person and any Body Politic or Corporate may assure in perpetuity or otherwise or demise or devise to or for the benefit of the Company any lands tenements or hereditaments whatsoever or any interest in any lands tenements or hereditaments within Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(iii) The assets and liabilities of the former Company including any property and monies held on behalf of or in trust for the former Company by any person or persons or body politic or corporate shall from the date of this Our Charter become and be deemed to be the property and monies of the Company and, where necessary and as soon as may be, shall be formally transferred to the Company or such person or persons on its behalf as the Company may prescribe. Likewise, the continuing contracts of the former Company shall be assigned to the Company as from the date of this Our Charter.

(iv) In the investment of monies belonging to or held by the Company, the Company shall seek such advice as it may see fit and shall take into account any law relating to charitable investment applicable at the time of such investment. Subject as aforesaid no liability shall attach to any officer, employee or member of the Company in respect of any loss or depreciation of any investment so made as aforesaid and any investment may be varied from time to time at the discretion of the Company.

(v) In case the Company shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Company shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts.

(vi) In case the Company shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, the Company shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority, approval or consent as may be required by law, and as regards any such property the Court of the Company shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into its hands and shall be answerable and accountable for its own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults, and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as it would have been if no incorporation had been effected and the incorporation of the Company shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the courts or the Charity Commission over such Court but it shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Company were not incorporated.

(vii) The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Our Charter and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to members of the Company and no member of its Court shall be appointed to any office of the Company paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Company.

CHARTER CHANGES

5 The members may, with the approval of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London and by a Special Resolution passed at any general meeting by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, revoke, amend or add to the provisions of this Our Charter; but no such revocation, amendment or addition shall, until approved by Us, Our heirs or Successors in Council become effectual so that this Our Charter shall thenceforward continue and operate as revoked, amended or added to. This Article shall apply to this Our Charter as revoked, amended or added to in manner aforesaid.

BY-LAW CHANGES

6 The members may, with the approval of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London and by a Special Resolution passed at any general meeting by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, revoke, amend or add to the By-laws for the time being in force; but no such revocation, amendment or addition shall have effect until approved by the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council of which approval a Certificate under the hand of the Clerk of the Privy Council shall be conclusive evidence.

SURRENDER OF CHARTER

7 The members may, by a Special Resolution passed at any general meeting by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, determine to surrender this Our Charter, subject to the sanction of Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council and upon such terms as We or They may consider fit, and wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Company in such manner as shall be determined by such resolution or, in default of such direction, as the court of law shall think expedient having due regard to the liabilities of the Company for the time being, and if, on the winding up or dissolution of the Company, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid or distributed among the members or any of them but shall, subject to any special trusts affecting the same, be given and transferred to some association or associations having objects similar to the objects of the Company which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income or property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company by this Our Charter, such association or associations to be determined by the members at or before the time of dissolution.

CONCLUSION

8 And We do hereby for Us Our Heirs and Successors grant and declare that these Our Letters or the enrolment or exemplification thereof shall be in all things good firm valid and effectual according to the true intent and meaning of the same and shall be taken construed and adjudged in all Our courts of law and elsewhere in the most favourable and beneficial sense and for the best advantage of the Company any mis-recital, non-recital, omission, defect, imperfection, matter, or thing whatsoever notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.
